Competition Rules for the Poster Competition for the 101st Félibrée

The competition is organised by the Committee of the 101st Félibrée in the Eymet Region and the Bornat. The Poster must feature, without exception, the following information in the Occitan language :

Felibrejada dau Bornat dau Perigòrd** (**The emphasis must be respected)

The date of the Félibrée : 3, 4 e 5 de julhet 2020

The name of the town in French : Eymet

The names of other communes, if included, should be with their current geographic names

The theme of the poster must have a link with: The host town: Eymet, the theme of the Félibrée this year: Water (because Eymet is a Bastide bordered, to a large extent by the Dropt), the neighbouring communes or the region. Traditional "Folklore" imagery is not mandatory.

The Félibrige Star, the Occitane Cross and the Bornat logo (the hive) must appear on the Poster.

Freedom of expression is encouraged

Dimension : max w: 40 x h: 60, portrait orientation, a 5cm band at the base of the page must be reserved for corporate advertisers.

Vitally important : The Poster is likely be reproduced on a number of wares (plates, programmes and others), it must therefore be able to be easily adapted - in particular with regard to the text. One (or a number) of complementary designs (variations) should be anticipated .

The Poster competition is open to all, without exception. The selection is made by a jury nominated by the Committee of the 101st Félibrée. Their choice is final.

The designer of the chosen Poster will be invited to the Félibrée and their design will be presented as part of the ceremonies.

The designer of the chosen Poster will only retains the rights of authorship - the organising Committee assumes ownership of all other rights.

The graphic designs should be addressed to the Comité de la Félibrée at the Mairie in Eymet or to the Bornat dau Perigòrd, 13 rue Kléber, 24000 Périgueux before 15th February 2020, together with this completed document duly signed.

All Posters will be exhibited during the Félibrée.
